

Contemporary Humanism

International PhD Program & Research Network

Alberto Anelli

(Education, 2018-2022)

Advisors

Giuseppe Tognon (LUMSA University - Rome), Augustin Mutuale (Institut Catholique de Paris)

Dissertation

Education and freedom. Contributions of phenomenology to the pedagogical problem.

The encounter between phenomenology and education is studied in two stages: the reconstruction of the vicissitudes of «phenomenological pedagogy», developed at the beginning of the 20th century in Germany and oriented towards the thought of Husserl; the rediscovery of the lesser known «pedagogical phenomenology», born within the Freiburg school and based on the critical reception of Heidegger's theory of freedom.

Research interests / Fields of expertise

Philosophy
Theology
Education
Social Sciences

More info: <https://www.contemporaryhumanism.net/phd-alumni/>